They now face a Swiss side that will feel somewhat disappointed not to have matched the Italian's result, after being pegged back by Wales 1-1 in their first Group A game. Breel Embolo was on target for Vladimir Petković's side early in the second half, only to see Kieffer Moore's glancing header in the 74th minute rescue a point for the Welsh.

Paris Saint-Germain midfielder Marco Veratti remains a doubt for the Azzurri, while fellow PSG star Alessandro Florenzi is also struggling to be fit after picking up a calf injury. The Swiss squad appears to have managed to come through their Welsh test unscathed, and will be determined to grab a win that would blow Group A wide open.
